

SBSPGI, Balawala Observes Earth Hour

SardarBhagwan Singh Post Graduate Institute of Biomedical Sciences & Research, Balawala joined hands with the world wide campaign of switching off their lights for one hour between 8.30 pm to 9.30 pm to observe Earth Hour on March 25, 2017. To show their growing concern over climate change, students of the Institute actively took part in the eleventh edition of Earth Hour by switching off all their electrical appliances for one hour in order to increase awareness.

Earth Hour is an annual campaign started by the WWF (World Wide Fund for Nature/World Wildlife Fund).The event is held annually encouraging individuals, communities, households and businesses to turn off their non-essential lights for one hour, from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. on the last Saturday in the month of March, as a symbol for their commitment to the planet.The campaign pushes for households and business establishments across the world to turn off their non-essential lights and electrical appliances for an hour at the selected time to raise awareness towards the need to take action on climate change.
