

Himalaya day was celebrated in SBSPGI with fervor. The function was organized under the aegis of Debating Society of SBSPGI with Dr. Reena Kumari in capacity of Convener of the society. Students from various departments spoke about the importance of Himalayas and its ecosystem and discussed various ways for conservation of Himalayan ecosystem. On the occasion students gave speeches and also expressed their views in form of poems as well.

The function was graced by Prof. F. C. Garg, Director, Col. (Retd.) IPS Walia, Administrative Officer and HOD's of all Departments graced the occasion. Among the audience were Students of all the departments who pledged for conservation of nature and environment.

The Director of Institute Prof. F. C. Garg and Prof. Sanjay Gupta, HOD Biotechnology, also spoke to students regarding importance of following green practices and conservation of Himalayas and nature and how we can contribute for a better and green world.